Passion: An intense desire or enthusiasm.

As an Industry Partner and 7-year trade Show committee member I have witnessed passion for creativity, passion for networking to share ideas and experiences, passion to welcome students and emerging professionals, and passion for giving back to the community from both designers and IP's alike. I want to build on the success of the directors before me to bring new talent to the chapter, working with the other board members and committee chairs to develop innovative programs, CEUs , and events that inspire and keep the passion we all have for the ASID NJ.

Thank you for the opportunity.
